

20-25 July, 2015

Event Programme and Timetable

Celebrate Catford

Generously supported by:

CATFORD TALES

A community performance about the past, present and future of Catford.

Friday 24th July at 7.30pm
Saturday 25th July, at 2.30 and 7.30pm

Catford was once a thriving hub of music, night life, shopping and civic campaigning. Could it be transformed again? 'Catford Tales' is a promenade theatrical event, interweaving verbatim testimony from local community members with historical events to celebrate the changing face of Catford.

For more information and to book tickets:

020 8690 3428

www.lewishamyouththeatre.com

www.ticketsource.co.uk/lewishamyouththeatre

Twitter: @LewYouTheatre

www.lewishamyouththeatre.com

CELEBRATE CATFORD EVENTS

Booking for all events: <https://www.ticketsource.co.uk/lewishamyouththeatre>
Information: www.lewishamyouththeatre.com

Catford Pub Quiz

Tuesday 21st July, 8pm
Catford Constitutional Club, Catford Broadway SE6 4SP

What famous silent movie star was from Catford? Which two infamous 60s gangs had a shootout in Catford? Come test your knowledge of all things Catford at the Constitutional Club's quiz night.

Broadway Silent Movie Night

Wednesday 22nd July, 7.30pm
Broadway Theatre, Catford
Tickets: £12 / £10 concession

The Broadway Theatre, Catford was opened in 1932 as a silent movie house, and still has one of the few working Compton Organs remaining in situ in the UK. Join expert Peter Hammond and organist Richard Hills as they show you the inner workings of the Organ's instrument loft, screened live as the organ is playing. Then, enjoy a short silent movie as it was meant to be experienced - with the accompaniment of the Compton Organ.

Featuring slapstick classic Blue Bottles (1928) starring Catford's own Elsa Lanchester (best known as Bride of Frankenstein), directed by Ivor Montagu and written by Frank Wells from a story by H.G. Wells.

Presented in association with Ashton Bentley Concepts.

Broadway Stories

Historical Talk by Chris Hare and Martin Costello (FREE EVENT)
Thursday 23rd July, 7.30pm
Broadway Theatre Studio, Catford

Join raconteur Chris Hare and the Broadway Theatre's General Manager, Martin Costello, for a hilarious evening of anecdotes about the Broadway's varied past. From Morecambe & Wise and Tommy Cooper to Roy Orbison, the Temptations and Maya Angelou, Chris and Martin will regale you with fly-on-the-wall stories of the acts that have graced Catford's Broadway Theatre.

Presented in association with the Lewisham Local History Society.

Catford Tales

A promenade theatrical event by, for and about the people and places of Catford
Friday 24th July, 7.30pm
Saturday 25th July, 2.30pm and 7.30pm
Broadway Theatre, Catford
Tickets: £8 / £5 concession

FREE EXHIBITIONS

Hidden Catford @ Catford Constitutional Club from 13th July
Photography by Kevin Ireland, Cathy Myers and Bridie O'Sullivan

People's Patchwork @ Catford Library from 20th July

If you had one patch to tell a story, what story would you tell? Come see a patchwork quilt that captures the richness of Lewisham residents' stories and explores what Lewisham means to us all.

<http://peoplespatchwork.blogspot.co.uk/>

Catford Cats @ Lewisham Civic Suite from 20th July

An exhibition of artwork from Community Education Lewisham's learners, inspired by cats.