

Outreach Producer

This position leads LYT's work to engage vulnerable young people aged 8-21 in our programmes through coordinating a multi-pronged offer of targeted outreach projects, taster sessions, introductory projects and one-to-one support. Working alongside the Participation Manager, the post-holder will coordinate the recruitment and referral processes, co-deliver introductory and outreach projects. The post holder will also support participants' continued engagement and progression across LYT's programmes through one-to-one mentoring and pastoral care.

Salary: £26,000 per annum

Reporting to: Participation Manager

Hours: Full Time (35 hours per week)
The nature of work in this field will sometimes necessitate unsociable hours. No overtime is payable, but Time Off in Lieu (TOIL) will be given, in agreement with a line manager.

Holidays: 20 days, plus bank holidays

Terms: Fixed Term to 31 August 2024, with intention to extend dependent on funding. The role is subject to a 6-month probationary period.

As this post involves working with/contact with young people, any offer of employment will be confirmed following the company's procedures and policies with regards to obtaining references and enhanced disclosure status.

Primary Work Location: LYT's base at 144 Lewisham High Street and in partner venues around Lewisham

Our Mission Statement

All young people have a powerful voice and a right to be heard.

Lewisham Youth Theatre (LYT) nurtures and inspires young people's voices through free participatory theatre activities, helping them to develop enduring and transferable skills that lead to increased life chances and long term well-being

We bring young people together from across the Lewisham community to create outstanding theatre in an environment of high expectations and collaboration. We work from the core belief that artistic excellence is key to expanding young people's horizons and creating lasting transformation.

About Lewisham Youth Theatre

LYT creates excellent and inclusive theatre as a tool to improving the long-term well-being and life chances of Lewisham young people aged 3-24, helping them build the skills, resilience and ambition to achieve their potential. Since 1987, we have provided inclusive drama, performance and technical theatre activities completely free of charge to young people from across Lewisham's diverse communities, working from the core belief that artistic excellence and an environment of high expectation is key to expanding young people's horizons and creating lasting transformation that will support them to achieve in any future environment. We do not audition and the majority of participants (minimum 70%) face significant disadvantage across a range of needs. Through individual progression mentoring and referrals from local services, we actively support those in need to engage, progress through our activities and move on to positive next steps in training and employment within a wide variety of fields. This level of support leads to high retention rates, with c.90% of users taking part in 3+ sessions and 85% completing their projects.

The Outreach Producer post is currently supported by the Henry Smith Charity.

Since 2015, the quality of our programmes have been recognised by a Gold level London Youth quality mark, a quality assurance scheme accredited by City and Guilds.

OUR PARTICIPANTS

Each year, LYT works with over 200 young people aged 8-24 in sustained projects and reaches another 400+ through one-off outreach sessions. We provide an integrated service that brings young people together from across Lewisham's diverse communities, targeting our outreach to recruit young people facing disadvantage across a range of needs. Over 70% of participants every year are identified as facing disadvantage, including:

- Poverty
- Mental Health needs, including those that don't yet meet thresholds for CAMHS care)
- Special needs, inc. physical/sensory disability, learning difficulty or autism spectrum disorder
- Family disruption, including Looked after children, Young Carers, those known to social services, and those suffering early bereavement
- Other needs that may require additional support to take part, including young refugees, asylum seekers and new arrivals, those with English as an additional language, and those facing educational disengagement.

Our referral partners include local primary and secondary schools, PRUs and special schools, Child & Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS), Lewisham social care services, youth offending team and other social service programmes.

OUTREACH PROGRAMME

Our Outreach activities form a key part of our work to support vulnerable young people to access and engage in our programmes. (See Participant Journey flow chart below). Through a multi-prong offer of taster activities, targeted projects and individualised support, vulnerable participants are able to join and excel in an inclusive setting. The Outreach Producer will:

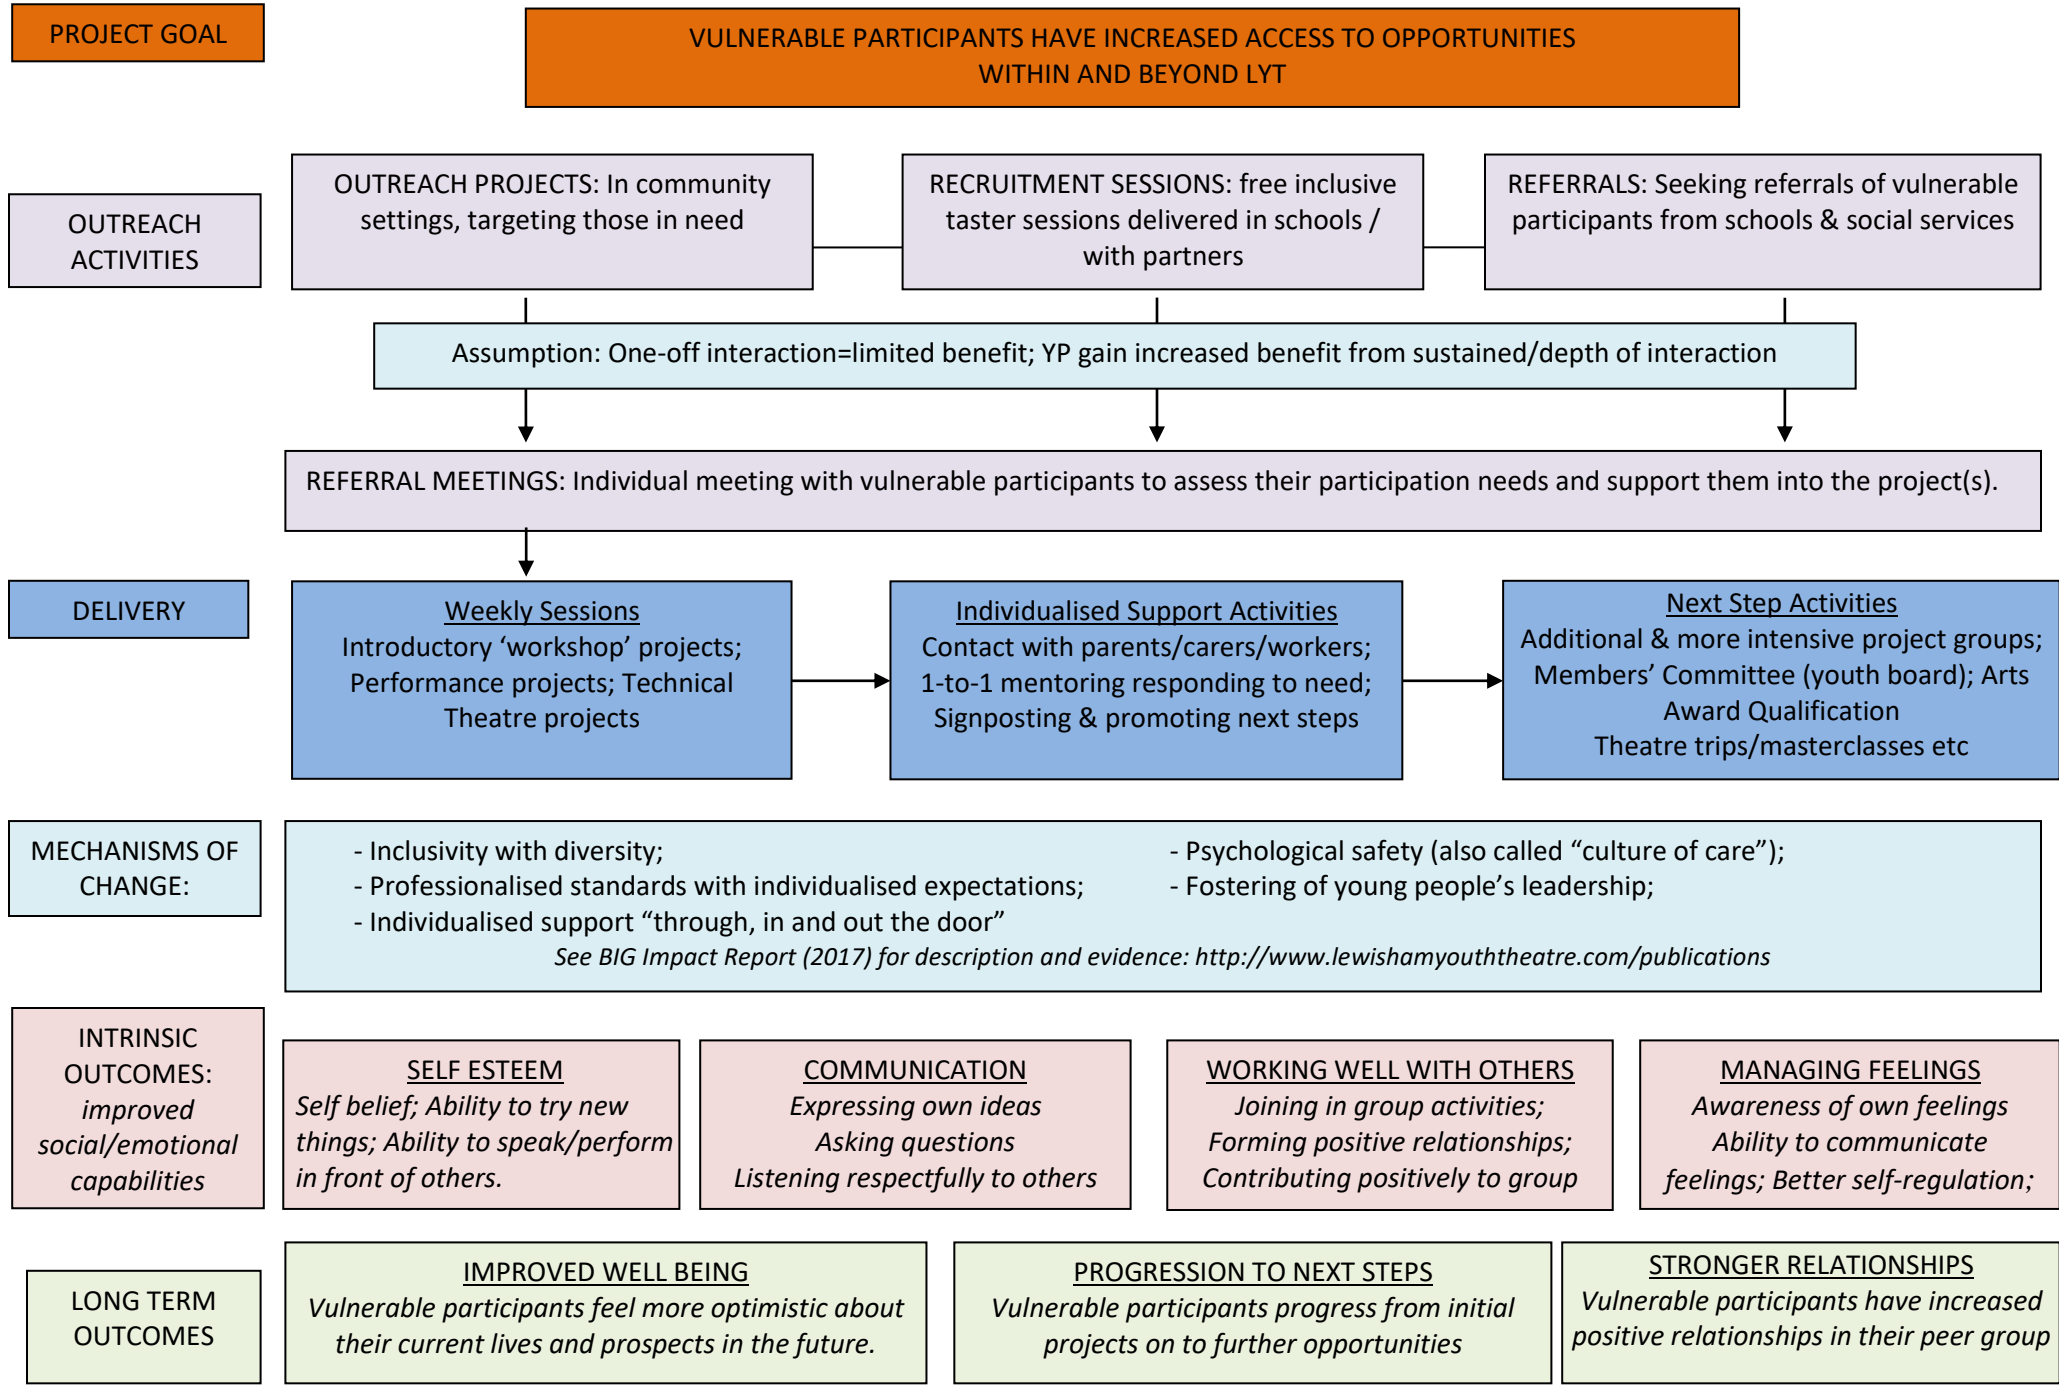

- Coordinate & deliver free taster sessions in schools and partner services with high levels of need and/or free school meal entitlement, alongside the Participation Manager;
- Design & deliver outreach projects with social service organisations, special schools and PRUs to support access for targeted groups;
- Coordinate the referral system, offering dedicated spaces for referrals from schools and social service partners and for those who self-refer with disclosed needs, alongside the Participation Manager;
- Offer One-to-one support: meeting individually with referred young people to support project access, engagement and progression to positive next steps;
- Universal/Database outreach: Communicating with our database of c750 previous participants and c240 new enquiries to offer project opportunities.

Outreach Projects: The Outreach Producer will design and lead 3 x outreach projects per year to support young people from targeted groups to access LYT's core youth theatre projects. The Producer will be responsible for building relationships with partner organisations and schools, designing the project with partners and a freelance co-lead, delivering and evaluating the projects. The Outreach Producer will aim to support vulnerable participants from these projects into LYT's introductory projects.

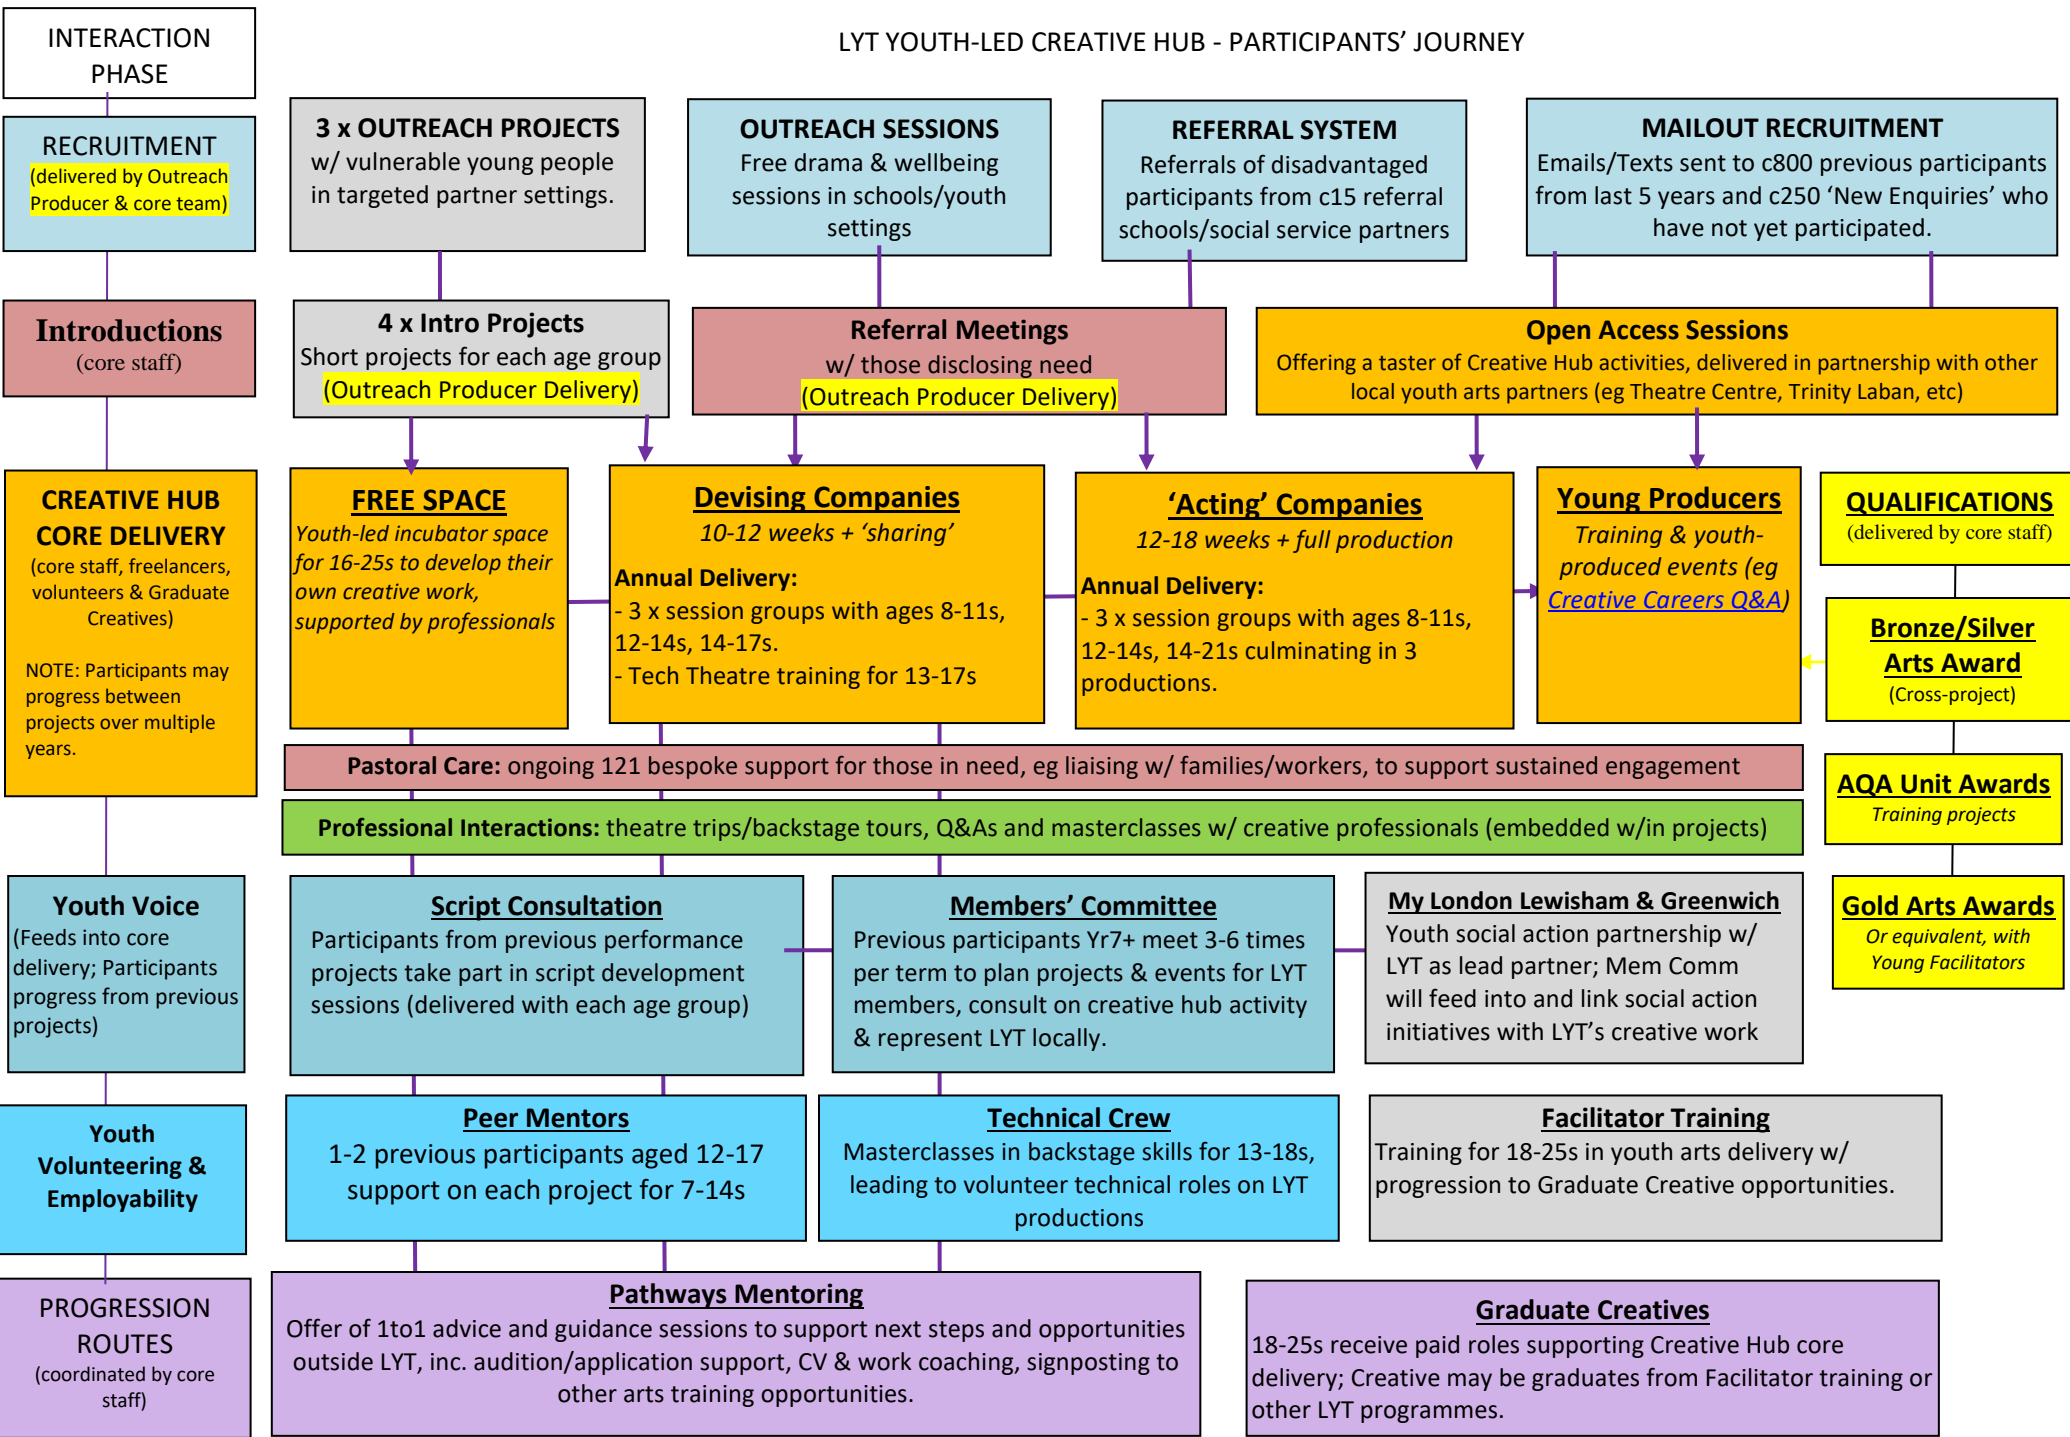

Introductory Projects: The Outreach Producer will coordinate and co-lead introductory projects consisting of 5-weekly workshops focusing on building drama knowledge, transferable social skills and introducing participants to the ethos of LYT. The introductory (also called 'Workshop') projects provide a key stepping stone for participants who may initially lack the skills, commitment or confidence to join a longer term and more intensive performance project.

THEORY OF CHANGE

The Outreach Programme is supported by a certified Theory of Change and evaluation plan (Project Oracle, Standard 1). Throughout the project, the Outreach Producer will help to achieve the outcomes set out in the TOC.

EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES STATEMENT

Lewisham Youth Theatre is committed to equality and inclusion at all levels of the organisation, and actively opposes all forms of unlawful and unfair discrimination. LYT values the role diversity plays in engendering a positive working environment. We therefore aim to ensure equality of opportunity in all levels and activities by adopting equitable approaches to all that we do and working to ensure that our policies and practices (formal and informal) remain lawful, fair and actively inclusive.

This policy includes preventing discrimination associated with the protected characteristics of age, disability, gender reassignment, marriage and civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion and belief (or lack thereof), sex and sexual orientation.

LYT recognises that those who use our services are individuals with different needs that may impact on their ability to access services. LYT may sometimes deliver projects aimed expressly at engaging specific groups, with the aim of increasing the diversity and inclusion of service users across our activities, in line with our Business Plan. We will work hard to ensure that project criteria is appropriate to needs identified in our community, and that all those who fit the criteria for engagement have the opportunity to access our services.

These principles apply to LYT's provision of services, working practices and its employment and training practices. The policy applies to the treatment of all Council of Management members (Trustees), staff (permanent or temporary, including those on contracts), applicants, trainees, consultants, volunteers and members (including youth and community participants).
